Evening World.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18.

SUBSCRIPTION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

OVER 300,000 A DAY!

OVER TWO MILLION COPIES A WEEK! The Largest Circulation of Any Newspaper in the World.

The total number of Worlps printed during the

Tast week was 2,183,930, as follows:	1250
Manday265,280
Monday
Tacaday306,190
Wednesday 318,110
Thursday 308.560
Friday 295,430
Materday A 282,100
Wenkly and Semi107,610	copie
Average circulation of THE WORLD per	day f
-ahove week,
A STATE OF THE STA

311,990 Copies.

We, whose signatures are appended, certify G. W. TURNER, Business Manager, J. ANGUS SHAW, Cashier.

J. O. SMITH, Foreman WORLD Press Roo C. E. STUART, Acting Supt. Mail and Delivery Dept.
EDWARD H. RANKIN, Auditor.

rate, City and County of New York, as.:

Personally appeared before me G. W. TURNER, Business means or; J. ANOUR SHAW, Cachier; J. O. SMITH, comman Press-Room; CHARLES E. STEWART, Acting hyerintendent Mail and Delivery Department, and DWARD H. RANKIE, Anditor, who, being personally

newn to me, did appead their signatures to the statecapt above made and depose and swear that it is true of correct. correct.

or York, Qet. 15, 1887.
Or York, Qet. 15, 1887.
City and County of New York.

ADVERTISING RATES.

zy, 25 cents per line. No extra price for display. Business or Small states reptable display. Business or Special Notices, opposit Rditorial page, 50 cents per line. Reading Notices massed or marked "Advt.": First page, $1.50 pc line: Fourth page, $1.25 per line; Inside page, $1.

ply to the Evening Serve. Nor do the raise of that ties apply to the Norwing Edition.

AN OPEN SECRET.

The Sun confesses that it abandons the support of Mr. NICOLL for District-Attorney use THE WORLD favors him, and it hates THE WORLD.

The people of New York knew already the otive that inspired the sudden change in the Sun. But it is well that the motive is

With the jobbing politicians and boodle sympathizers "knifing" Mr. Nicola beise he has done his duty towards thieves and bribers, and a soured, broken-down and pised newspaper joining in the attack because THE WORLD is preferred to it by the people, the citizens of New York can see upon what the opposition to Mr. Nicoli, is

Shall the city lose the services of the brill-Sant and successful prosecutor of Jacon SHARP because he " has made New York too hot for the boodlers," or because a newspaper wrecked by colossal lying, hatreds and malevolence is animated on the gravest public question before the people by a spite which it has not the sense to conceal?

STARVED OUT.

The strike of the miners in the Lehigh coal region is ending by the usual process. It is almost "starved out."

The operators have been supported by other members of the coal barons' combination. The miners have not been, and perhaps could not be, supported by the labor organizations. And so the weakest go down in the unequal contest.

The wrongs and sufferings of these miners have been described in THE WORLD. They sible for the crime? are paid little more than pauper wages. They are made the victims of monopoly stores. They are obliged to pay tribute to a "company" doctor. They are compelled to be s parlor" choose to direct a "limitation of production" to force up prices.

No wonder they cry, "How long?"

AN ACCIDENT AND A ORIME.

There shall be no dodging of the responsibility for the fatal building disaster in Harem yesterday. Five men were crushed to death in the ruins, and thirteen seriously injured. There must be some atonement for this criminal slaughter.

The terrible responsibility rests directly with the Building Department and its Inspectors. The simplest laws of construction were grossly disregarded. Father KIRNER. superintended the work, apparently knew nothing of the principles of architecture. It was the distinct duty of the Building Department to see that the laws of safe nstruction were observed.

But this duty was not done. The Building Department and its Inspectors should answor for this neglect. There is work for the Grand Jury here. The official Buddensieks must be called to account.

The fall of this building was both an accigent and a crime.

THE LEADER OF THE KNIGHTS.

The resignation of Mr. Powderly from the leadership of the Knights of Labor would be a serious loss to the order. The Minneapolis Convention will make a mistake if he is permitted to retire.

While Mr. Powdenly has erred in some instances, his general policy has been conservative, sensible and strong. He has won for the order the respect of the public and made triends of those who might have been ene-

If the Knights wish to avert the fate that has almost invariably overtaken similar organizations in the past, let them heal their internal dissensions in their zeal for a comnton cause and retain at the helm the conservative and level-headed Mr. Powderly.

" BREAKING IN."

A new journalistic ally of Jours Krenan, the bribe-dispensing wells who is endeavor-ing to run the politics and government of Work from his safe seclusion in Canada, charges THE WORLD with "breaking into the affairs of the city."

We plead guilty. THE WORLD did "break into the affairs of the city" on the morning after the Broadway steal was consummated, when the most of the other journals were silent or half-hearted in denouncing the crime against honest government. THE WORLD continued its demands for the punishment of the boodlers and bribers until the cases were tardily brought to trial. It kept up its tradition-breaking activity until the prison held part of the gang and the rest were under bail or in exile.

And we purpose to continue the fight while there is a rogue unpunished or a wrong to right.

THE MODERN MECENAS.

The annals of literature can show no more graceful and significant tribute to genius than the SHARESPEARE fountain erected at Stratford-on-Avon by Mr. Gronge W. CHILDS. It is a gift characteristic of its donor, one of a multitude of well-directed benefactions that give the name of CHILDS a fadeless lustre. In these days of mercenary millionaires it is reassuring to find so broad-gauged and liberal a MECENAR.

We know not what Mr. CHILDS's views as to the Shakespeare-Bacon controversy may be, but that matters not. The "all-observing and all-comprehending mind" that produced the immortal plays, by whatever name known, is the recipient of this tribute. There cannot be too many tributes to that genius, and if Mr. DONNELLY succeeds in transferring the laurel wreath to Bacon, we shall confidently expect to see another CHILDS fountain erected at St. Albans.

A PENALTY OF SUCCESS.

It is really too bad that persons in no way responsible for the unparalleled success of THE WORLD as a newspaper should be visited with some of the penalties for that success.

President CLEVELAND lost the support of one of our esteemed contemporaries because he availed himself of THE WORLD as a medium for giving to the country his views on a number of interesting subjects.

And now Dr LANCEY NICOLL has lost the support of another newspaper because THE World has started an evening edition that the people seem to like.

What would these amiable neighbors have us do? We really cannot help printing the news, nor quit fighting boodlers and bribers, in order to insure their continuance on line which they have heretofore followed.

The thing we purpose doing is to go straight ahead serving the public, just as though there were not another newspaper printed in this town.

HAS THE PUBLIC NO RIGHTS ?

The woman who shot and wounded Col. LAPAYETTE L. DEMING has been discharged from custody, Judge Cowing observing that without DEMINO's evidence it is impossible to convict her."

Why was not Col. DEMINO's evidence secured? Does "social position" exempt a man from the operation of the law? It is notorious that Col. DEMING has been seen in public many times since the shooting affair. Why was he not subposnaed?

If a poor devil of an Italian slips a knife into a rival in a spasm of jealousy, or a man without "influence" is the victim of a wronged girl's assault, the offender is promptly confined and the victim detained as a witness. It is rightly held that society has an interest in checking these homicidal outbreaks. But there must not be one rule for the "low" and one for the " high."

If Col. DEMING's enemy shall shoot to kill next time, will not the law officers be respon-

Sheriff MITCHELL promptly and squarely denies the fabrications of envious newspapers that had not the grace to acknowledge themselves badly beaten in the story of the Maine bank robbery and murder, but sought to cover their discomfiture by discrediting THE WORLD'S reporter. The Sheriff acknowledges that without THE WORLD'S assistance he would have been unable to get to the bottom of the affair and arrest the principals. Our chagrined contemporaries will never make headway by picking flaws in things that a live journal does. Let them do something themselves,

The voters of this city understand perfectly that, as the Herald said a few days ago, " the reason for killing off NICOLL is that he makes New York too hot for boodlers." But he is not killed off yet, and the people who do not care to have the temperature of their city reduced for the benefit of boodlers will see that he is protected and promoted for duty well done.

The candidates for local offices nominated by the United Labor Convention last night are fairly representative of the movement and, so far as we know, are honest men. The convention was enthusiastic and harmonious, and the managers of the new party are evidently counting on a considerable

The Western Union Telegraph Company said immediately after the deal that there would be no change in rates. Now it says there will be no change in long-distance rates. Mr. Govld, in his consideration for the public, is trying to gently break the news of an advance all around.

Our neighbor in the tall tower says that r Fresh Air Trust " bas already been formed and is doing a big business under the name of the Tribune Fresh Air Fund. In that sort of "trust" we put our heartiest confidence and always give it a boost as occasion serves.

Is this a reverberation of HENRY GRADY'S sloquence that we hear as we go to press? About this hour he is revealing to President CLEVELAND the wonders of Atlanta and of the English language.

Dr. Holmes's poem for the Stratford SHARESPEARE fountain was worthy of the occasion, and of both poets more could not be asked or said.

SIX WEDDINGS IN ONE DAY.

THE OCTOBER SUN SHINES BRIGHT ON THESE NEW YORK BRIDES.

They Ought Therefore to be Happy, if the Old Proverb be True, Which It Doubtless is Two Weddings to be in Church, Three in the Homes of the Brides' Parents, and One in Delmonico's-The Bridesmaids,

IX weddings are to take place to-day. Tuesday seems to be a favorite day for New York brides. If all brides are happy whom the sun shines upon, to-day's brides ought to have a lifetime of happiness, for the weather was perfect. Few countries can excel America in the matter of autumn heere, of England, and Miss Jessie Re tallack Van Auken will be married at 4.30 this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. B. H. Van Auken, No. 421 Fifth avenue. The Key, Henry Van Dyke, of the Brick Church, will officiate. The bride will wear a white satin gown, with decollete corsage, tulle vail and necklace of solitaires. She will be given away by her great uncle, Abram Garrison, of Pittsburg, the elder brother of the late Commodore Garrison. Mr. John P. Kingsford will be the best man. Miss Cornelia Van Auken and Miss Annie White will be the bridesmaids. Mr. Winthrop Parker, Mr. George E. Wood, Mr. J. Murray Mitchell and H. G. Clave will be the ushers. The guests are expected to include Mrs. Paran Stevens, Miss Brady, Miss Ruth Lawrence, Mrs. Hicks-Lord, Miss Edith Newcomb, Miss Piersall, Miss Ashmore, Miss Shack, Mr. and Mrs. Livermore, the Misses Clift, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Parsons, Mrs. William Livingston, jr., Mrs. George Merritt, Clift, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Parsons, Mrs. William Livingston, Jr., Mrs. George Merritt, Miss Mamie Strong, Miss Hurlbut, Judge and Mrs. Lawrence, Judge and Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Stevens, Dr. and Mrs. J. Blake White, Mr. H. S. Blake, Mr. Henry Chauncy, Mr. Howard Constable, Miss Chisholm, Mrs. and Mrs. Austin Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell, Mr. Arthur Leary, Miss Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Medallister, Mrs. Kip, Miss Kip. Mrs. Gordon Wendal, Miss Draper and Mr. Botassi, Consul-General from Greece.

Wendal, Miss Draper and Mr. Botassi, Consul-General from Greece.

Mr. Benjamin H. Bulkley and Miss Sadie Otis will be married this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the Fifth Avenue Brick Church. The Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, will offi-ciate, assisted by the Rev. Henry Van Dyke, rector of the church. The bride will wear a white satin gown, with high corsage and tulle veil falling to the foot of the long train, the whole trimmed with festcame of crance bloswhole trimmed with festoons of orange blos-soms. She will carry a bouquet of white roses. Mr. William H. Dibble, an uncle, will give the bride away. There will be no best man or bridesmaids. Mr. Alfred Ellsworth, give the bride away. There will be no best man or bridesmaids. Mr. Alfred Ellsworth, a cousin of the bride; Mr. Moses Bulkley, a cousin of the groom; Mr. John Bulkley and Mr. Arthur Jennings will be the ushers. After the ceremeny a reception will be given by the bride's mother at the Windsor Hotel. Among the expected guests are are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sloan. Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Cuyler, Mr. and Mrs. O. Bulkley, Mrs. E. Nichols and the Misses Nichols, Mr. Charles Jennings, Dr. and Mrs. B. H. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Waterman, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Black, Dr. and Mrs. S. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. C. Black, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Isham, Dr. Robert Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bander Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson, Mr. Brundige, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson, Mr. Samuel Fessenden.

Miss Jessic Coe, daughter of Mr. Spencer W. Coe, will be married to Mr. James Marshall Stuart at 8.39 o'clock this evening by the Rev. Chas. H. Parkhurst at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church. The father of the bride will war.

Square Presbyterian Church. The father of the bride will give her away. She will wear a white faille française with long train and V-shaped corsage with trimmings of duchesse lace. The veil will be of tulle. The diamond and pearl necklace to be worn is a gift from the groom. She will carry a bridal bouquet of white roses. Miss Cecile Bacon will be the maid of honor. Messrs. J. Lawrence Aspinwall, J. Scott Boyd, jr.; Dr. W. Janes, Henry Taylor, Tomkins Dela-van and Augustus Hutchins will be the Square Presbyterian Church. The father of van and Augustus Hutchins will be the ushers. A small reception will be given after the ceremony at the Murray Hill Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston, Miss Conch, Mr. T. Willis James and family. Mr. Lawrence Coe, Mr. Frank H. Scott, Miss J. Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer C. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Thramer, Miss Nettie Steel, Mr. and Mrs. William Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. James Thorn Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lanier, Miss Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dale, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Strong and Miss Strong and others are expected. and Augustus Hutchins will be the pected.

Mr. Richard C. W. Burne and Miss Char-Mr. Richard C. W. Burne and Miss Charlotte H. Stinson will be married at 8 o'clock this evening. The Rev. Dr. Brainard Ray will officiate, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stinson, 49 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street. The bride will wear a white satin gown, cut high, with front draperies of point lace. The tulle veil will be secured with a diamond pin, the gift of the groom. She will carry a bunch of Bride roses. Miss Laura Duffield will be the maid of honor. Mr. William C. Burne will be the best man. Miss Fanny Champlain, Miss Marguerite McHilney, Miss Alice Foran and Miss Jennie Purdy will be the bridesmaids, and Messrs. John E. Stinson, Robert Parker, George E. Stout and C. son, Robert Parker, George E. Stout and C.

son, Robert Parker, George E. Stout and C. Buck the ushers. A reception will follow the ceremony.

A very large wedding will be that of Mr. Seymour Bookman and Miss Helen Rosenwald, which will be celebrated this evening at Delmonico's at 6.30 o'clock. The best man will be Sigismund Rosenwald. There will be no bridesmaids. Mr. Alexander E. Hoffman, Mr. C. Le Enrich, Mr. B. Rosenwald, Mr. M. Meyberg, Albert Rothschild, Mr. Isaac Bernheim, Mr. Edward Veith, Mr. Schleuchterer and Mr. Abram Bookman will be the ushers. The reception will be given be the ushers. The reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosenwald, No. 55 East Sixtieth street. The bride bride will wear a gown of cream satin, with V-shaped corsage and orange blossoms. She will wear a tulle veil and carry white roses.

orange blossoms. She will wear a tulle veil and carry white roses.

The Count Savorgnan di Brazza, elder brother of the African explorer, and Miss Cora Slocomb, daughter of Mrs. Cuthbert Slocomb, were married to-day at noon, at the temporary home of the bride's mother. No. 3 East Forty-fifth street. The Rev. Father Ducey, of St. Leo's Church, officiated at the religious ceremony. The newly wedded pair will sail shortly for Europe and pass the winter at the groom's Roman plazza. Mrs. Slocomb and her daughter have lived abroad for some years, having left their New Orleans for that purpose.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The steamer City of Rio Janeiro, arrived to-day, she reports that a Chinese junk capsized in a squall on Sept. 12, in Japanese waters, and that eleven out of her crew of nineteen were drowned. The others drifted about in a boat without food or drink for thirteen

In Flames and Abandoned at Sea

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
SAN PRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The British ship Nogpore, on her way to Santa Rosalia, was abandoned She took fire and her crew barely escaped ir lives. They finally succeeded in land-

Observant Exchanges Still Commenting o

'The Evening World's" Succe [From the Rochester Herald.]
THE EVENING WORLD is a brick, if the expres sion may be allowed.

[From the Postneket Evening Times.]
The New Yorld World now issues an evening dition which promises to be equally as successful as its morning namesake. The first issue had phenomenal sale. It is a handsome penny paper.

[From the Rhode Island Democrat.]
The New York World has begun the issuance of an evening edition, which has met with phenomenal success. Its success is assured because it is a good paper and nothing chesp about it but the price, one cent. [From the Moravia Valley (N. Y.) Register,] THE EVENING WORLD IS a new surprise launched forth from the New York WonLD office, for the first time, Monday evening last. We have seen only a copy of this number, but it bears with it all the elements of success that have so characterized its morning parent. Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, like Alexander, sat by the ses and wept for a fresh World to conquer. The idea then struck him that an Evening World would be just the thing. The first copy appeared Tuesday, and it is a fit counterpart of its wonderful matutinal progenitor,

[Prom the Connecticut Westporter.]
That world-wide marvel of enterprise and sucess, the New York Wonte, launched its evening edition on Monday, and it was truly a big hit, there being 111,410 copies printed and circulated. Nothing like such a sale of the first lasue of a newspaper appears in the records of journalism. And it is a first-class paper. a fit son of a worthy sire. At its birth it leads the corps of evening journals, and all for a cent, at that.

[From the Oft City Derrick.] The New York EVENING WORLD is a chipper and sassy newspaper that has just reached us. It is a six-page paper filled with attractive news and bright editorial comment. It will undoubtedly kick up a great deal of dust in the journalistic free-for-all, and its contemporaries will have to look out or they will get some of it in their eyes. Since it has become quite the fashion for great morning journals to issue evening editions we may do it ourselves some time.

[From the Wallingford (Conn.) Witness.]
THE EVENING WORLD appeared on Monday. It contains six pages of seven columns each. Twenty-six columns are filled with news items and entertaining reading matter, the remaining columns containing advertisements. The retail price is one cent, so that for one mill the reader is furnished two and six-tenths columns of excel-lent reading. It is safe to say that this is the cheapest priced paper ever published in New York. [From the Lancaster (Pa.) Examiner.]

Now comes the evening New York World—as bright, newsy and saucy as its great morning companion. The mere fact that the first day's sales of THE EVENING WORLD reached 111,000 indicates that the whole field of afternoon journalism has not been filled in Gotham. Without doubt this new venture will increase the phenomenal success of its first day's issue, as THE WORLD, morning, noon or night, seems to be directed by journalistic genius in both editorial rooms and business office. [From the Onsonta Press.]

forward in the march of journalistic enterprise Last Monday evening the first issue of THE EVEN-ING WORLD appeared—price one cent. The new venture is what might be expected-bright, newsy and attractive, and gives promise of a brilliant success. With so many excellent newspapers published in the Empire State, and at such cheap rates, there is no excuse for any one to plead ignorance of what is going on in the great world

The New York EVENING WORLD jumped into exstence on Monday last with a circulation of over 111,000. No such feat has been performed since of Jove. THE EVENING WORLD is a great triumph of journalism. It bids fair to live forever as an apt illustration of the survival of the fittest. Whatever happens to other mundane enterprises it is likely to survive " the wreck of matter and the crash of other worlds" when the final smash comes on Millennium day. It is worthy of the success it has achieved. Price one cent.

FIGS AND THISTLES.

A Chicago lawyer makes both ends meet by driv ing a hansom cab at night.

Only ninety persons remain of the once powerful tribe of Modoc Indians. Consumption and close intermarriage have decimated the tribe.

The most expensive billiard-table in existence is that which Mme Patti has in her castle in Water It cost $2,000-About the price the diva is paid for A cavalcade of a dozen auburn-haired maidens.

all mounted on white horses, dashed through the streets of a Nebraska town the other afternoon and caused great excitement. The body of a dead mule was discovered in the topmost branches of a tall tree in Autauga County, Als., recently. It is supposed to have lodged there during the great flood of April, 1886. The manager of a Louisville theatre has in his possession a bundle of manuscript that would make a sensation if given to the public. It is composed of over two hundred letters written by wellknown men about town to the fascinating fairies of the foothights.

A school teacher in Lenawee County Mich. rought suit for damages against two young men who had reported that they saw him with his arm around a girl's waist, but the Judge threw the case out of court, declaring that it was nobody's business but the girl's.

The Arab language has only one and the same word for the wild boar and for the domestic pig. The natives in the French colony of Algeria have got over this difficulty by calling the friendly hog the civilized pig," while the savage and truculent wild boar is known as the " officer pig."

Leander Hill, who lives near Covington, Tenn, noticed blood on a bale of cotton that had just come from his press, and had it opened. To his unspeakable horror he discovered within it the crushed and mangled remains of his little son. The boy is supposed to have fallen asleep in the press.

Indians stole a horse from the ranch of Mr. Jar. rett, near Albuquerque, N. M., but his little stepson, a boy of ten years, rode after the thieves and overtook them. Riding in among them, he levelled a rifle at the leader and demanded the horse. It was given up and he rode back with it in triumph. The eldest son of W. R. Palmer, of the Madison Square Theatre, who accidentally shot himself eight weeks ago, has never recovered consciousness, and now three physicians after consultation join in the sad announcement that his recovery is impossible, and his death is near at hand. The unfortunat young man is twenty-two years of age. A Cleveland minister endeavored to explain in his sermon the vexed question where Cain got his wife without marrying his sister. He advanced earth was peopled by an unknown but highly civilized race and that it was from the daughters of these prehistoric settlers that Cain chose his spouse. Edward C. Darnell, who lives a few miles be low Omaha, Neb., wanted some stone for building purposes, and Yow up with dynamite a ledge of rock on the giver bank. When the smoke cleared away he was astonished to see before him the petrified body of some prehistoric dweller in the land, who had evidently been buried in the ledge. The body was that of a well-built man with handsome and intelligent features and a head of hair that fell below his walet, GAY ENDING OF THE FAIR.

LOTS OF DANCING AND A LUMP OF MONEY FOR ANTI-POVERTY.

is Estimated that the Receipts May Reach $20,000-Five Thousand People at the Ball-A Concert Precedes the Gayety-Ladies Enjoying Themselves After Hard Work-Labor's Campaign Fund.

Nineteenth round and wind-up! The Anti-Poverty mill is over and has resulted in a great victory for Anti.

No attempt was made to keep the place of peeting secret, and the police authorities interfered after the twelfth round and compelled the use of heavier gloves, else the victory would have been more decisive.

Poverty had been trained down too fine under the well-known trainer Necessity, the handler of many a man who has entered the ring in the battle with the famous pugilist Existence, and his record of victories is com-

Existence, and his record of victories is comparativally light.

The betting was rather in favor of Anti, who, though new to the ring, is a lusty young fellow, full of vim, earnestness and determination, and with a don't-know-what-it-is-to-be-whipped air of confidence in himself.

That the trust of the betting men was well placed is proved by the result. Anti had the best of it from the first call of time. He had the crowd with him, and this naturally dispirited his opponent, who managed, however, to come to the scratch at the call of time for nineteen rounds.

time for nineteen rounds.

The eighteenth round found Poverty panting in his corner, with Anti just the least bit winded by having to wear the heavy gloves, to which he was unused, but which the police insisted should be worn if the fight was to be to a finish.

Round nineteen was called last night at the Madison Square Garden. Poverty came up very groggy, eyes blackened and countenance generally disfigured. Anti was as fresh as a daisy, and it seemed cruel to inflict further punishment upon his adversary, but the fight must be won, and it was with one £200 blow, to the tune of "Corrigan's Curse" and $20,000.

and $20,000.

W. T. Croasdale, who held the stakes, mod-

W. T. Croasdale, who held the stakes, modestly puts Anti's winnings at about $10,000, but other of his friends assert that the gains are as high as the amount first named—$20,000.

This great victory was made the occasion for a grand concert and ball by the Anti-Poverty Society. Fully 5,000 people were present and engaged in the festivities or enjoyed them as passive lookers on.

Gayly decorated booths, evergreens, begging baskets, pictures and the attractive articles of merchandise, which have distinguished the fair during its three weeks of progress, had all disappeared, except the cigar-case in the Sixth Assembly District booth at the extreme eastern end of the Garden and some twenty nickel-catching contrivances. Even Dr. McGlynn's old housekeeper, Mary Halligan, who had been furnishing the dining-room, had gone to give place to a professional caterys and account of tail contributed.

Dr. McGlynn's old housekeeper, Mary Halligan, who had been furnishing the diningroom, had gone to give place to a professional caterer and a corps of tail-coated French waiters, who served a 75-cent supper.

But the most attractive feature of the fair—the fair—were still there and they had donned their best bis and tucker for the occasion. The girls of the Concordia Chorus and the Anti-Poverty ladies in general were dressed and looking their best.

A new feature was added to the fair last night which could not fail to attract the attention of all. In conspicuous places throughout the Garden were displayed hundreds of advertisements of a certain brew of lager beer, and, for the first time, it was on the list of beverages dispensed at the bar, which had moved its stock of soda and cider into the old quarters where the sports used to wet their whistles during the long-distance walking contests, so many of which the Garden has seen.

The fore part of the evening was devoted to the concert programme, which consisted of five numbers, three of which were orchestral and two were allotted to the Concordia Chorus, under the direction of Miss Agatha Munier. The vocal numbers were encored in each instance.

Munier. The vocal numbers were encored in each instance.

This concert was advertised to be completed by 9.30 o'clock, but it was an hour later before Floor Manager Charles J. Dumar led forth Miss Norris and his hosts of followers in the labyrinthine march which was to distribute them over the descript floor to lowers in the labyrinthine march which was to distribute them over the dancing-floor to begin the programme of twenty-four dances.
Mr. Dumar was assisted in his laborious duty by H. W. Toal, F. W. Schmaelzlein and and a Floor Committee consisting of Dr. P.
H. Ernst, Wm. Russell, Benjamin Doblin,
Patrick Reynolds, Edward Connor, Daniel
Crowley, John F. Clancy, Louis Moore, D.
J. O'Dair, T. J. Morrow, James Little, Leo Frodkin, John Kebell, James Bingham, J.
Truax, Frank J. Feeney, Denis Buckley, Patrick Moran, Charles J. Dimmick, A. J.

Truax, Frank J. Feeney, Denis Buckley, Patrick Moran, Charles J. Dimmick, A. J. O'Shaughnessy, B. Ahrens and Frank Kelly, and had there been twice as many there would have been no more than enough to look after the enormous floor and the great crowd of dancers that filled it.

The young ladies wore on their faces the appealing look which they had acquired after three weeks of asking alms for Anti-Poverty, and they were perfectly irresistible, especially as the look of appeal didn't tonch a young man's pocket, as in the past; that is, if he could steel himself not to regard the restaurant sign, "Supper, 75 cents."

One thing is assured. The fair has been an almost unqualified success. It was promoted first for the purpose of paying for the printing and the distribution of ballots for the United Labor party, and certainly it has been the means of securing to that cause more money than was needed for the purpose named, and enough, perhaps, to pay z large proportion of the expenses of election in named, and enough, perhaps, to pay a large proportion of the expenses of election in-curred by the party aside from the matter of tickets.

SOME BACHELOR ARTISTS.

M. de Forest Bolmer is a bachelor. R. H. Van Boskerk still clings to celibacy

Charles J. Turner has not been brought down by Cupid's shots. William Sartain has not given occasion to an epithalamium yet.

Harry Mills takes care of his own studio There is no Mrs. Mills to look after it. Percy and Edward Moran have not put their necks into the matrimonial yoke. Reginald Cleveland Coxe has not yet stood before the altar and yowed fealty to a woman. Herbert Levy has not given any lady the ight to have her visiting card inscribed Mrs.

right to have he Herbert Levy. Some of Walter Satterlee's lady friends wonder how he can be so good-looking and have escaped marriage.

F. S. Church has no wife to hover around his mermaids and other queer people and say: "Isn't that cute?"

A Great Advertising Medium. Editor of The Econing World; As our advertisement in the New York

EVENING WORLD proved so valuable to us, you will please continue the same, as per order herewith enclosed. I am pleased in being able to inform you that from the first insertion of our advertisement we received immediate benefit therefrom, and from my personal experience I am sure that there is no better advertising medium in our city than THE EVENING WORLD. Yours very E. H. HARPER. truly. Fresident Mutual Reserve Fund Life Ass'n.

New York, Oct. 17, 1887. The House Will Seat 2,664 People.

Editor of The Evening World:
I beg you to decide a bet I made the other day with a friend. We were talking about the new EVENING WORLD and Mr. Pulitzer's generosity is giving the newsboys free tickets for Miner's People's Theatre. My friend now best me that the whole house won't seat 1,2% people. Peans answer, if possible, in Sunday's Worllo, and oblige. Two Strady Readers. New York, Oct. 14, 1887. BILL NYE'S ADVICE TO GIRLS.

Thoughts Suggested by Miss Foster's Im

, AM sorry to note that within the past few days

she could marry Mr. Foss without changing the letter on the tidy which she had already made, preparatory to keeping house, did not stop to consider the great responsibility which she assumed by marrying an unknown man, but boldly launched herself upon the great, foamy sea of matrimony.

Much has been said about this impromptu method of marriage, but still people go on encouraging divorce by hurriedly acquiring a husband from he great five-cent counter of humanity. Miss Foster, it seems, was the daughter of a millionaire who edits a sawmill in Wisconsin, and who could have boarded her as long as she lived. To the casual observer it would seem that no emptation could woo a young lady from a home where all day long she could hear, the squeal of the complaining sawmill and the snore of the planing turning out matched flooring, 2x4 scant ling and dressed culls, and yet Miss Foster forgot the buzz-saw with which, she had been prone to monkey, the gentle skid, the XXXX shingles, the moist slab, the gummy joist, the select fencing and its finishing lumber, in order to dee to the arms of a stranger.

Matrimony is, in all cases, a serious matter, but it is doubly serious when it is tampered with in a dippant and triffing manner on the start, only to ring sorrow, chagrin, complaint, answer, joinder, rejoinder, surrejoinder, butter, rebutter and surrebutter, inharmony, parsimony and alimony at

Oh, girls, why will you do so? Why will you forget the sheltering arms of your parents to take up arms against a sea of trouble? Why will you turn your back on the lumber business to marry a man without a change of canes to his back? Why will you weary of the old home and seek out a who will break your North American heart and send you down, perhaps, to a damp and indesirable drunkard's grave?

Try to get acquainted with the man whom you propose to wed. As you get more thoroughly equainted, try to get a whiff of his breath. See that he is temperate. If you find that he love the flowing bowl, and that his hot breath as it courses through his clinched teeth scorches the otton in your ears, draw yourself up to your full height, crack your heels together twice in rapid BILL NYE. succession and go away.

ON TO WEST POINT.

Gen. Kilpatrick's Body Borne Towards It Final Resting Place.

The remains of Gen. Judson Kilpatrick were removed this morning from the City Hall, where they had been lying in state, to the West Shore Railroad depot to be taken to West Point, where the interment will be made. Judson Kilpatrick Post, No. 143, G. A. R., acted as an escort. After the hearse came three carriages, in the first of which were Mrs. Kilpatrick, her two daugh-which were Mrs. Kilpatrick, her two daughters and Gen. Sherman.

All the men who served under Kilpatrick who could attend followed the carriages, two abreast. The horse "Dandy," ridden by Gen. Kilpatrick at Winchester, and now thirty-two years old, was led riderless in the procession. Among those who followed the remains were: Major Harrison, Major C. H. Hatch, Major Green, Col. Birdseye, of Kilpatrick's regiment, known as the "Harris Light," and Col. F. C. Loveland, commander of the Sixth Ohio Cavalry. The pall-bearers were Major-Gen. H. W. Slocum, Major-Gen. W. J. Sewell, Major-Gen. Henry E. Davies, Brig.-Gen. Smith D. Atkins, Col. George Duryea, S. A. Hobart, George, A. Halsey, John Loomis, Joseph Coult, John C. Reid, Frederick A. Beelan, Cousel-General of Chili, Brig.-Gen. John B. McIntosh, Brig.-Gen. R. A. Alger, Brig.-Gen. John Hammond and Col. H. C. Hasbrouck.

COSTUMES FOR "EILEEN AGE."

Irish Comedian Brooks in Jail on a Charge of Palse Pretonces. Thomas L. Brooks, the Irish comedian and author of the drama "Eileen Age" and of the comedy "Charles O'Malley, the Irish Dragoon," in both of which he plays, was arrested last night at his home. No. 12 Uni. versity place, on a charge of obtaining nine complete costumes, worth $125, from Charles E. Brehm, a costumer, by false representa-

E. Brehm, a costumer, by laise representa-tion.

This morning at the Jefferson Market Police Court Mr. Brehm said that Brooks hired the costumes to play "Eileen Age" at the Grand Opera-House, Brooklyn. He was to give $10 deposit. Brooks left, and half an hour later sent a messenger with a letter to get the costumes, saying that the bill would be paid at the box-office that night by Man-ager J. Sandek.

be paid at the box-office that night by Man-ager J. Sandek.

Mr. Brehm gave the costumes and at night went over to the Brooklyn Theatre and found neither Brooks nor "Elleen Age" at the Grand Opera House. A few days later Brooks told him that the costumes were in Tarrytown.

Brooks pleaded not guilty, and said he was a Scotchman. He was locked up in de-fault of $700 bail.

Billiardists Saub New York.

[From the Chicago Horald.]
Jacob Schaefer arrived in the city yesterday morning, and after paying Tom Foley a friendly call met George Slosson and the rest of the billiard fraternity for the purpose of discussing the proposed billiard tourney. After taiking nearly all day it was agreed to give New York the alip and day it was agreed to give New York the alip and play the games in Chicago and St. Louis. This step was taken because of a refusal of Daly and Sexton to come West. The Westerners, who, by the way, are such cracks as Schaefer, Slosson, Carter and Gallagher, thought it folly to dance to the music of Daly and Sexton, and if these two Eastern gentlemen do not see fit to come West lovers of the "gentleman's game" in the East will not have an opportunity of seeing the coming tourney. The details of the games have not yet been arranged, but it is agreed that Schaefer and Slosson are to play from the "scratch." while all the other competitors will be given a fair handicap. The style of games and the dates for the matches will be made public at an early day. Schaefer is in fine condition, his trip across the water having proved of great benefit to him. posed billiard tourney. After talking nearly all

Bound to Reach Bottom Anyway. [From Figure.] The Parish priest of Versailles met the other day

one of his flock who is known in the place as notorious drunkard.

'My good man." he exclaimed, ''you drink so much that you will die of it."

'What does it matter, Father?" he replied, ''life is nothing but a cask. No matter whether you take big swallows or small sips, one is bound to reach the bottom,"

Wanted It in a Locket. * (From Gaulote.) An old bachelor finds a hair in his soup. Taking delicately on the point of his fork, and handing it with a most gracious smile to the cook who is waiting on him at table, he exclaims: "I am so much obliged to you. Josephine, but the next time be so kind as to serve it in a locket,"

Qute Likely. [From the Pittebury Chronicle.]
"A Crow disturbance in Montana is reported to the Interior Department," remarked the horse editor,

"I suppose there was some caws for it," replied the snake editor.

shown by Joseph Jef-ferson and Mrs. John Drew in "The Rivals." at the Star Theatre last night, is always a delight to theatregoers. Though the company supporting them could easily have been better and not so easily worse, its shortcomings were forgotten in the treat of watching Mr. Jeffer-son and Mrs. Drew. Mr. Jefferson has condensed "The Rivals," and many dialogues, which would fatigue the modern theatre-goer, were artistically eliminated. Mr. Jefferson was, of course, the eliminated. Mr. Jenerson was, of course, the ingenious Bob Acres, while Mrs. Drew appeared as Mrs. Malaprop, of whom she gave a finished interpretation. Miss Emma Vaders was Lydia Languish, in her own peculiar, non-committal manner. Mr. Geoffrey Hawley was Jack Absolute, and Barton Hill was a most lugubrious Sir Lucius O'Trigger. The members of the company have a great deal to learn and, if they are sensible, will study Mr. Jefferson and Mrs. Drew.

Signorina Teresina Tua, dimpled, smiling, bare-armed and be-satined, appeared at Chickering Hall last night in a not very original impersonation of the Patti of the violin. There is not the least doubt that she created a very favorable impression, and if the charms of her personal appearance had anything to do with that creation, who will blame her for magnifying it as much as possible? Tua is a brilliant violinist, and there is a recklessness in her method which fascinates, perhaps, more than it legitimately ought to do. There is a want of neatness about her rapid passages which is rather annoying, and she scrambles over them as though anxious to leave them behind. The slower passages Tua plays deliciously, and on the andante last night she was heard at her best. Her sudience was enthusiastic, Alexander Lambert, and an orchestra under Mr. Van der Stucken, sided Signorina Tua.

Manager Amberg, of the Thalia Theatre, has no reason to regret his engagement of Herr Heinrich Boetel, the tenor, who appeared last night in "Il Trovatore." Herr Boetel did not electrify his audience, but he gratified them. He is the lucky possessor of the coveted high C, which always captures an audience. "Il Trovatore." was, of course, given in German as "Der Troubadour." Herr Boetel scored his greatest success in the third act, when he sang "Di quella pira l'orends" with great effect. He was supported by Mmes, Herbert-Foerster and Jenny Boner. At Poole's Theatre " Hazel Kirke " proved the usual attraction to the susceptible east siders last night. Miss Blanche Mortimer gave a pleasing impersonation of the heroine and T. J. Herndon was an acceptable Dun-stan Kirke. Miss Clara Morris could not have com-plained of her reception at the Grand Opera-House last night. The enormous audience assembled there watched her impersonation of "L'Article 47" with unflagging attention. Miss Morris made the most of the various situations she was called upon to elaborate, and she was rewarded by frequent applause.

Dockstader's minstrelsy held its acous-tomed sway over a large, laughing audience last night. Every one knows what that sway

At the Third Avenue Theatre last night "The Merry War" was given by the Wilbur Opera Company to a vigorous house. Miss Susie Kirwin was Eliza and P. C. Nare the "Conrad the Corsair," in all his glory, will be at the Bijou Opera House to-night.

Manager Russell is in town, and ecstatically de-clares that "Natural Gas" has made a hit in the West.

"The Golden Giant" will not be seen at the Theatre Comique, as announced. "The ming Bird" will be the attraction instead. Miss Lilian Oloott, who is starring in Sardou's masterpiece, "Theodora," played this week to large business in New Haven. "Theodora," will be the attraction the coming week in Providence. Miss Oloott is entitled to much credit for the great success of "Theodora."

This will be the last week of "The Great Pink Pearl," which will make way for the first regular dramatic season of the theatre under the present management, with "The Wife," Seats not already secured for the opening night will placed on sale next week.

FOLKS FROM OUT OF TOWN,

Ex.-Gov. A. R. Shepherd, of Washington, s at the Gilsey House. Charles Dickinson, of Waterbury, is staying at the Murray Hill. Prof. and Editor J. H. Durston, of Syracuse, stops at the Gilsey. At the Windsor may be found Senator Daniel H. McMillan, of Buffalo.

United States Senator Joseph N. Dolph makes the Fifth Avenue Hossi his home at One of Cincinnati's largest merchants, E. A. Hasson, of Carew & Co., registers at the Bartholdi.

George Sard, of the Albany stove manufacturing firm, Rathbone, Sard & Co., is at the Brunswick. James Tillinghast, of Buffalo, formerly General Manager of the New York Central Railroad, registers at the Windson to-day.

The British aristocracy is represented at the Windsor by Lord and the Honorable Misses Kinnaird and Sir George Campbell. H. Guzman, Nicaraugua's diplomatic representative at Washington, is at the Hotel Brunswick, accompanied by Senora Guzman.

George W. Cable, whose delicately humorous stories of Creole life in Louisiana have delighted thousands, is at the Everett House. "Stately and tall, he moves in the hall, the chief of a thousand for grace." Ex-Gov. Robert E. Pattison at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

The electrical expert and Superintendent of the Brush-Swan Electric Light Manufac-turing Company, of Cleveland, N. S. Pas-sons, is registered at the Murray Hill.

Among other guests at the Fifth Avenue Hotel are L. Q. Washington and R. B. Lang-don, of Washington; Gen. T. T. Crittenden, U. S. A., and H. C. Parsons, of Virginia. Ex-Comptroller and millionairs Ira Daven-port, of Bath, defeated by David Bennett Hill for Governor, is a guest at the Gliscy House. Mrs. Davenport accompanies him.

Henry Irving, the tragedian, has engaged rooms at the Hotel Brunswick, as has also his agent and manager, Bram Stoker. The former will arrive on the Aller about the 27th inst., and Stoker on the Imman Line steamship City of Richmond, which is due in this port about the same date. Irving's advance agent, Charles E. Howson, arrived on the Aurania yesterday, and is quartered at the Morton House.

Boetel Reaches the High C in German-Clara Morrie in "L'Article 47." CI.

OOD work like that

FRESH PLAYS ON THE BOARDS.

OLD AND NEW ATTRACTIONS BROUGHT OUT

Treat by Joseph Jefferson and Mrs. Drew in "The Rivals"—Signorian Ton Creates an Impression With Her Violin-Herr

Ab . LAST NIGHT.